COVID-19 Test Results by Week

When to get tested?

- Before and after travel*
- If you have symptoms
- 6 to 9 days after you were exposed to someone who tests positive

*For some travel locations, if you had a positive test for COVID-19 within 90 days, you can use this to permit travel

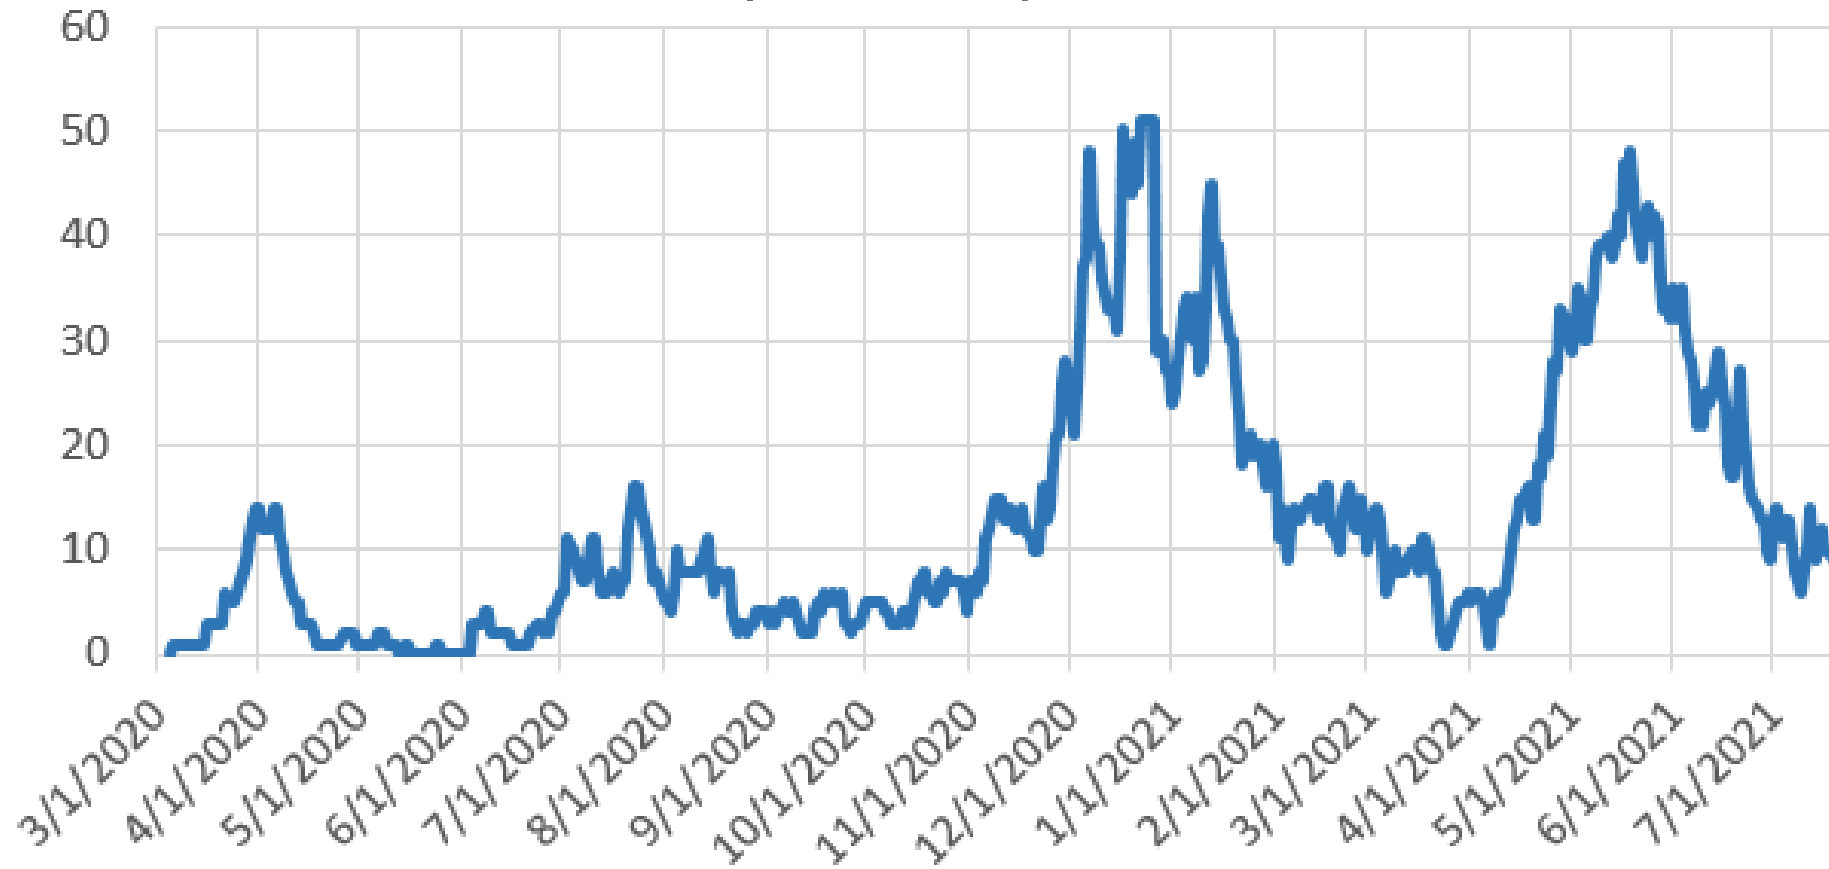

Testing for travel

- Know the requirements – most locations require PCR test results within 72 hours
- Visit www.deschutes.org/covidtesting
- Find a location on the OHA testing locator that meets your needs
- Call ahead to confirm test type and turnaround time
- Get tested and travel safely!

Changes to mask guidelines and practices

- Most OR mask requirements lifted. Still encouraged if you're not yet vaccinated.
- Masks required at: healthcare facilities, certain workplaces required by OR-OSHA, businesses that require masks, planes, busses, trains, transportation hubs, jails and correctional facilities.
- Some people may choose to continue wearing masks due to medical conditions, personal preference, loved one who is high risk, etc.

Changes to mask guidelines and practices

1) DC Health Services clinics are continuing our phased approach to re-opening; at most clinic sites (at least for BH), in-person services are now the default mode of providing care

2) As health clinics under the Governor's/OHAs guidance, masks remain mandatory regardless of vaccination status; the only exception to masks is if someone is alone in a private office.
